

Learning in a Nutshell

1 HOUR POWER LEARNING SEMINARS

Positive Parenting

Discover the way to truly listen to a child's feelings and learn effective strategies in becoming a positive role model in a young person's life.

This seminar introduces you to actions to assist you in setting up new and exciting techniques that will modify your parenting skills in an instant! These include:

- Listening attentively and responsively so your child feels valued and loved
- Exploring your child's interests and concerns through reflective listening techniques
- Using a respectful communication style to become a more positive role model
- Discovering vital ways to always be accessible to a child; this will make them feel respected and in turn they will initiate a meaningful conversation with you

By adapting your parenting style using these tips and techniques, you will be astounded at how fast your relationship with your child grows and improves. This short insight into communication with children has the ability to, not only positively change your life but that of your child's.
